Welcome to Monte Carlo Madness!

Signing up for this challenge is a fantastic thing to do for Martha Trust so thank you. The money you raise will have a huge impact on the lives of our residents.

The people we support have profound physical disabilities, multiple learning disabilities and huge potential. Your sponsorship will help to unlock that potential by funding therapies and treatments, buying specialist equipment, paying for day trips and holidays and generally making sure that our residents get the very best opportunities in life.

We're asking you to pledge to raise £1,500 (this includes your £400 deposit which is payable on registration).

This pack includes everything you'll need to reach this target including a fundraising guide, promotional posters, sample letters, sponsorship forms, key dates and ideas on how to find your car.

Carol from the Martha Trust fundraising team will be on hand throughout the challenge to offer you advice, guidance and support. So if you're struggling or just need a few words of encouragement, give them a call.

Buying your car

There are hundreds of ways to pick up a bargain and you're certainly going to need one. With no more than £200 to spend on a vehicle that must qualify for an MOT, you'll need to look around.

- ▶ Check out your local garages and scrap yards. Offer to have their name and logo on the side of your car, particularly if they're prepared to give you the car for nothing!
- ▶ Contact webuyanycar.com but make sure you haggle.
- ▶ Car auctions are a great option but take someone along who knows a thing or two about cars.
- ▶ Look at the Free Ads in the local paper and notices in your local shops.
- ▶ Go on Ebay.

Wherever you go to buy your car remember to negotiate. You're doing this for charity so explain the work we do at Martha Trust, it may help to get you an even better deal.

Monte Carlo Madness – guide to fundraising

Thank you for signing up to our 2022 car challenge – Monte Carlo Madness. To help you reach your £1,500 target we've put together a fundraising guide, packed full of ideas and tools to help you kick start your fundraising.

Martha Trust

Martha Trust is an extraordinary charity that supports extraordinary people. We provide respite and residential care for people with profound physical disabilities and multiple learning disabilities across Kent and Sussex. Our aim is to provide a safe, loving, stimulating and happy home for our residents and to ensure that they enjoy the very best opportunities in life. We can't do it without your help.

Your guide to fundraising

When it comes to fundraising, the sky's the limit. We've put together some suggestions to get you started but please share your own winning ideas and we'll make sure we pass them on.

Good luck!

Get cracking

Kick start your fundraising with our specially designed toolkit available to download from www.marthatrust.org/montecarlomadness or call Carol on 01304 610448. It contains all the basics you'll need for your fundraising including sponsorship forms, letter templates and posters.

Fundraising websites like JustGiving (www.justgiving.com) are a great way to raise sponsorship and you'll get advice about online fundraising and a simple guide to setting up your fundraising pages.

Network

Social networking can give you a massive boost. Get in touch with family and friends on Facebook and send regular updates on your progress through Twitter. Include the link www.marthatrust.org.uk/montecarlomadness so that people can find out more.

And if you're using JustGiving make sure you include a link to your pages so that people can sign up to sponsor you immediately.

If you aren't on any social networking sites then get in touch by email, phone or better still in person. You could even organise an event or a coffee morning to bring people together and ask for their support.

Mix it up

Dom Murphy and Jamie Roe held a Vinyl evening to raise funds for Bonkers in Barcelona in 2012. They invited friends and family along to a café in Margate run by Jamie's partner, and charged their guests £20 a head for food and drinks.

Everyone was asked to bring a vinyl record with them and, in return for a small donation, their record was played. To round off the evening, a raffle was held for a chance to see an England world Cup Qualifying game at Wembley. And because the raffle was run by two volunteers from Barclays, the company then match funded every penny raised by their staff.

Use what you've got

Dom and Jamie's car, which came complete with lights and customised paintwork, inspired the pair to dress as aliens and call themselves the Space Invaders. The car became the focus of much of their fundraising and everywhere they went, people were invited to write on the bodywork in permanent marker in exchange for a small donation.

The car was taken to a local boot fair having been loaded up with goods donated by friends and family and every penny raised on the day went towards their fundraising total. As a final boost, several local companies which sponsored the car had their logos proudly displayed on it.

A bit of a do

Why not organise an event or host a party? You could sell tickets or lay on some entertainment or a quiz, raffle or bingo and raise money that way. Pull in a few favours and reduce your overheads, especially if you know someone useful like a DJ or the manager of a local venue. If you can find a business to host your event you could share the profits between you like Lynne and John Hadley.

Clean up for charity

Lynne and John Hadley came up with a charity car wash to raise funds for Monte Carlo Madness in 2014. The idea can easily be replicated with the help of a local car wash or by organising one on your own. The couple held theirs one Sunday in August. They teamed up with a local car wash who agreed to donate all profits on the day to their Monte Carlo Madness fundraising target.

The event was well publicised ahead of the date using an outdoor banner sited at the car wash, social media, friends and family and local radio and press. You do need to be organised and ensure you focus on raising awareness ahead of the date but it proved to be a successful fundraiser for the Hadleys.

Corporate muscle

If you work then ask your employer to match your fundraising total or sponsor your car in return for putting their logo on it. Use the intranet, notice boards and newsletters to drum up support and run a sponsored silence, themed day or offer to make the tea and coffee for a week.

And don't just limit yourself to your own company. Get in touch with other companies you have a relationship with, like suppliers, and ask them for sponsorship. We've even included a couple of template letters in our Fundraising toolkit, including one from Mark Scott.

If you don't ask...

Mark Scott and co-driver Andy Clarke raised a staggering £3,000 in corporate sponsorship when they set about fundraising for the Trail of 3 Cities.

Mark runs Mark Scott Arenas, and decided to contact his suppliers to ask for sponsorship. Crucially, every email was sent to a named individual and as part of the deal, he offered any company donating £100 or more the chance to have their logo on the side of his car.

His email generated some great responses and anyone who didn't get back to him was followed up by phone.

Mark gave us a copy of his original letter which we've included in our Fundraising Toolkit. Let's hope it brings you as much success as it did Mark!

Get others involved

If you have children then talk to their schools about running a non-uniform or themed day, cake sale or coffee morning. And if your children are members of any local clubs like the brownies or scouts then why not get them involved too?

If you're a member of a community group, sports club or church then ask for their support - you'd be amazed at how willing people can be to help.

Make a song and dance about it

Whatever success you have in your fundraising let us know about it and we'll post your news online, on Facebook and on Twitter. If you've done something amazing, secured some corporate sponsorship or organised an event that you need to promote then we'll drum up some local PR for you.

Gift Aid it, Gift Aid it, Gift Aid it!

Ask everyone who sponsors you or makes a donation to Gift Aid it. It's worth an extra 25% on everything you raise and won't cost you a penny. As long as your sponsor is a UK taxpayer then they simply need to tick the Gift Aid box on the sponsorship form, provide their name, address and postcode and we'll do the rest.

You raise	Gift Aid could be worth an extra	Total raised with Gift Aid
£1,500	£375*	£1,875*

* where all donations are eligible for Gift Aid

Please note for this type of fundraising event unfortunately we are unable to claim Gift Aid on sponsorship made by people 'connected' to the participant.

A person is 'connected to a donor' if they are:

- ▶ The donor's husband, wife, civil partner or linear relative – for example son, daughter, parent, grandparent or grandchild
- ▶ Any linear relative of the donor's wife, husband or civil partner
- ▶ A company under the control of the donor, or under the control of any of the above.

The good news is we can claim Gift Aid on Sponsorship payments made by people who are not connected to the participant.

Monte Carlo Madness – guide to fundraising

Say 'thank you'

It's incredibly important to thank your sponsors and to let people know how you got on. Facebook and Twitter are ideal ways to post updates, photos and keep in touch but if you don't use the Internet then send a letter or pick up the phone.

In brief...

- ▶ Kick start your fundraising with our fundraising toolkit www.marthatrust.org/montecarlomadness or call Carol on 01304 610448
- ▶ Get online with Just Giving
- ▶ Use social media like Facebook and Twitter to spread the word
- ▶ TALK to people – face-to-face can be really persuasive
- ▶ Host an event and share the overheads with a local venue
- ▶ Get your employer involved and talk to other companies about sponsoring you or your car
- ▶ Exploit your networks and get support from your local community groups and clubs
- ▶ Keep everyone updated on your progress and let us hear your success stories
- ▶ Boost every penny you raise with Gift Aid
- ▶ Don't forget to say 'thank you'

And remember, you're not alone

Whatever you do to raise your £1,500 for Martha Trust remember we're here to help every step of the way.

Monte Carlo Madness fundraising company sponsorship – letter 2

Dear Sir/Madam

I realise that we all receive plenty of charity requests each year but I offer no excuses for sending this one to you.

I have decided to take part in the charity car challenge – Monte Carlo Madness. A team mate and I will be setting off on Saturday 17th September 2022 and have been given just three days to drive from Dover to Monte Carlo.

Where's the challenge in that you may ask? Well, one of the conditions is that our cars must cost no more than £200.

The charity is Martha Trust, which supports people with profound physical and multiple learning disabilities across Kent and Sussex. You can find out more about their amazing work at www.marthatrust.org.uk

We are committed to raising at least £1,500 for Martha Trust and we will personally be paying for the car, fuel, tax, insurances and obviously any running repairs along the way. Ideally, though, we'd like to raise far more.

Having never run a marathon or cycled the length of the country, we wanted a gentle entry into the world of fundraising, but something requiring a bit more effort than buying a red nose or a charity t-shirt.

I understand completely if you don't feel able to make a donation but I would like to stress that we'd be grateful for donations of any amount – and I do mean any amount.

We'd also be grateful if you could make your donation through the Gift Aid scheme which means that Martha Trust can get the tax back. We've set up a Giving Page to help you at [\[insert link to your Just Giving site\]](#)

Cheques can be made payable to Martha Trust and anyone able to donate £100 or more will get a mention on the side of our car.

Thank you in anticipation of your generous donation and we promise to keep you informed of our progress!

Yours sincerely
